How it works

Choose a Farm

The first step is to decide that you want to invest. Select a farm based on location and availability of livestock. Your livestock will have an RFID tag that you can track. You can also visit the farm if you'd like to see your investment.

Buy a livestock from a farm

Buy a livestock at a set price from a farm listed. You can also book a livestock in advance. Once the livestock is available, We will list the animal in your dashboard

Help your livestock grow

To keep your livestock in good shape and to insure it against possible disasters, a small monthly contribution for feed and insurance is required. This will also ensure that if something happens to your livestock, you are insured.

Sell your livestock or donate to charity

You can sell your livestock anytime to potential buyers or you can donate to charity, perform religious rituals like Qurban and Aqiqah. After you sell it, your money will be credited to your account.

Why should you invest in livestock?

We are always thinking of how to grow our money

However, investing in options and currency trading is not easy and ordinary people are not equipped with the knowledge of investing in it. As a result, many, who wanted to make a quick earning have failed or fallen prey to scams like pyramid selling, get-rich-quick ponzi schemes (and many others) and lost a lot of money. Warren Buffet has given a good advice – “Never invest in a business you cannot understand”.

Investing in livestock is easy

Be an owner of a livestock

Livestock has been the symbol of wealth, of prosperity and a source of pride. We are giving you the opportunity to not only own your own livestock but also be an investor in a validated farm.

Watch you investment grow

By investing in livestock, you're investing in something tangible that you can see, feel and watch grow until you decide to sell your investment, or buy more livestock

Affordable, profitable investment

You can buy, care and then sell you livestock. The farmers have extensive experience in managing livestock so it is in good hands.

Easy to invest, minimum risk

You don't need any experience in investing, farming or owning livestock. We do it all for you. All you need to do is watch your investment grow and reap the rewards
